James Bridges, Dayton, from the College-Conservatory of Music, trained by Elmer Thomas, and the usual May Festival Chorus of several hundred voices recruited from the area. Julius Rudel, music director of the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington and director of the New York City Opera, returns as the 1971 May Festival music director.

WLT television personality Bob Braun, whose new album on the Wrayco label, "The Many Moods of Bob Braun," was released last week on a national basis, is cutting tapes for early showings on Dick Clark's "American Bandstand" via ABC-TV and Bill Anderson's syndicated country music TV-er originating from Nashville. Released on a limited basis two months ago, the Braun album has been experiencing encouraging sales in the area covered by Avco Broadcasting's four-city TV net—Cincinnati, Dayton and Columbus, Ohio, and Indianapolis.

Professional Management International has signed a management contract with Shirley Jones, a 20-year-old vocal stylist from Arkansas. Initial plans are to form a backup group for Miss Jones and perfect her nightclub act so that she can perform as a self-contained unit or as a single. . . . Jim Wagner, president of Royal Talent Agency, has announced that entertainment at the Minnesota state fair will be headlined this year by the team of Sandler and Young. . . . Four members of the Classics IV has signed a recording contract of their own with United Artists Records, according to Buddy Buie, president of Buddy Buie Productions. The yet unnamed group consists of Sam Traina on lead guitar, Bill Gilmore on bass, organ player Danny Ramos, and Chris DeMarco on drums. The group is currently working on an LP at Atlanta's Studio One facilities under the production of Buie. The forthcoming LP is tentatively set for release in late February or early March. . . . Steve Monohan is recording the Bob Jenkins penned "Flying Machine" for Jamie Records in Nashville. . . . Bobby Fuller, former lead vocalist/performer with the Fuller Bros., is negotiating the launching of his solo recording career. Fuller's sessions will be exclusively produced by Dennis Linde of Combine Music. TOM WILLIAMS

Gate Crashing Forces 'Crash' Program of Delaying Booking

lowed their entry into the hall. There were no incidents after they entered the hall but we have stopped all concerts of this type until we can come up with a better way to control the crowd," said Fuller. "In the final analysis, the students will have to decide for themselves if they want a concert and then they will have to control the concert themselves. With the large and very popular groups, I really see no way to avoid these incidents."

The University of Alabama has found a way to avoid gate crashing. Dennis Kirkpatrick, the college union director said that he researches the groups which the students want to perform on campus. "I look at their sensitivity and past performance record," said Kirkpatrick. I also try to get everything the group needs for a concert. We have had no gate-crashing primarily because we have Pinkerton people at every concert. The students handle all of the booking which I believe also helps to alleviate the problems many schools have with crashers and the like. I am an advisor to the student bookers and do a great deal of the research on the groups myself," Kirkpatrick concluded.

No Difficulty

Erik L. Erickson, assistant director of programs at the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, has had no difficulty with gate crashers or no-show artists. "We do not book groups with which we feel we will have difficulty. Probably most of the trouble occurs in town and emanates from high school students. The police have been beefed up at the local dances and I think the local young people believe that we at the university also employ a good amount of police at our concerts and dances. This, however, is not the case, but as long as we can keep the young people believing that this is the case, do not feel we will have any difficulty. The fact that we book many local groups for our dances also helps keep the gate crashing to a minimum. I think the groups that really draw big crowds are the groups a school might have trouble with," said Erickson, echoing the words of his fellow union officials across the country.

Control in Gym

At Florida State University, Tallahassee, Logan Birdson, the assistant program consultant to the student booking committee, said that the only problem they have incurred at a concert is crowd control inside the gymnasium. "They tend to crowd the aisles making a fire hazard. In these cases, we simply stop the show and ask them to return to their seats."

At an upcoming concert featuring Spirit, Florida State will not put in seats or bleachers in the gym. Instead, the audience will be asked to sit on the floor, hopefully eliminating the problem of crowding the aisles. Logan attributes the success of the university concert series to the fact that the student committee chooses all the artists who are to appear. "This means that we will probably get a good turnout and a well-mannered crowd. Everyone gets a chance to see the group and gate crashing in large numbers is virtually unheard of around here," he commented.

The University of Miami in Coral Gables, Fla., was forced to close all on-campus concerts, moving the entertainment to either the Miami Jai-Li Fronton or the Marine Stadium. This move evolved after the allegations of drug trafficking and gate-crashing at the free concerts on campus which were student-sponsored and virtually open to the public.

CHARLIE WALKER'S SWEET SIXTEEN.

Not that the last 15 records Charlie recorded weren't tasty. Every one made the charts. So his new single, "My Baby Used To Be That Way," has a lot going for it already. Take a track record like that. Add to it this good country sound produced by Billy Sherrill, and the total says "winner." You're invited to a sweet sixteen party. The guest of honor is "My Baby Used To Be That Way."

David Houston Month in 2 minutes and 13 seconds.

A song called "Nashville."

A song that sums up more than just a month. Or the life of its author, Don Wayne.

It's Nashville as a way of life. And Nashville as the sound that changed country music.

Nashville: Where David Houston Month is every month of the year.

David Houston's new single, "Nashville."

'ONE NIGHT OF LOVE'

Columbia 4-45418

Johnny
Duncan

LEFTY FRIZZELL ISN'T GOING WHERE MOST COUNTRY MUSIC'S GOING.

His music is pure. It has that great "original" country sound. When country music was lots of fiddles and steel guitars.

And you can hear it all on his new single, "Honky Tonk Stardust Cowboy."

It's the kind of song that made Top 40 turn country in the first place.

"HONKY TONK STARDUST COWBOY." A pure country song from Lefty Frizzell. ON COLUMBIA RECORDS

"No Need to Worry"

4-45431

Johnny Cash & June Carter's new single. It's a beautiful gospel number, laced with country finery only Johnny and June could weave.

A new song that says a lot about country music today. And tomorrow.

On Columbia Records

"The Night Miss Nancy Ann's Hotel For Single Girls Burned Down."

257 8503

Reports from the field are calling Tex Williams' new single the novelty record of the year.

Major Top 40, country, and even FM stations across the U.S. report heavy listener response.

But there are a few people who are visibly upset by the single.

Unfortunately, we could only get a picture of them from the back.

"The Night Miss Nancy Ann's Hotel For Single Girls Burned Down" by Tex Williams.
(In blushing 45 rpm.)

Barbara Mandrell/David Houston.
"We've Got Everything But Love."

10779

THIS IS THEIR SONG.

"After Closing Time" was a first for David Houston and Barbara Mandrell. It was the first song they sang together. And it was a huge country hit.

But now they've followed it with a new Billy Sherrill production. "We've Got Everything But Love." Including a hit that could go all the way up the country charts.

THE NEW
CARL SMITH
SINGLE IS A WHOOPIN'
GOOD
COUNTRY SOUND.
THE KIND THAT'S PERFECT FOR TODAY.

It's already starting its way up the C&W singles chart.

SINGS
"RED DOOR."

ON COLUMBIA RECORDS.

There are three good reasons
why this song
is getting great Country & Western air play.

The first is the talent of the man who sings it—Johnny Paycheck. When he delivers a lyric it really comes alive.

The second is the song itself: "She's All I Got" is a catchy, up-tempo tune with some unusual changes that sound very natural. And very good.

And the third, but certainly not the least reason, is the man who produced the song, Billy Sherrill. He's been behind so many of Nashville's recent hits, the only ones who've been able to keep count are the people who give the Grammys.

Add the reasons up, and you get great DJ and listener response. In every major city in the U.S.

And by the way, if you think the reasons that "She's All I Got" has been getting great C&W air play sound like three good reasons why it'll soon be climbing the Top-40 charts, far be it for us to say you're wrong.

Johnny Paycheck's
"She's All I Got."
On Epic Records

Billboard SPECIAL SURVEY For Week Ending 9/25/71

Does the International Academy of Country and Western Music Know Something You Don't?

This year they picked Mayf Nutter one of the top 5 most promising vocalists.

Why?

It could have been due to his version of Everybody's Talkin'. Or Hey There, Johnny, Mayf's tribute to Johnny Cash. Or Simpson Creek Won't Never Run Clear Again, which not only hit the Top 10 but caused five polluted streams in Clarksburg to be revitalized.

It could be his new Capitol single, Never Ending Song of Love (3181) by Delaney Bramlett. It's perfectly suited to Mayf's big, clear, friendly voice.

Liz Anderson has written a lot of great Country hits. Like "Ride, Ride, Ride" and Merle Haggard's "From Now on All My Friends Are Gonna Be Strangers." And she's also had quite a few Grammy Award nominations.

Now Liz is singing one of her songs herself. Just weeks after its release, "It Don't Do No Good to Be a Good Girl" is already on the country's top Country stations.

Her first Epic single is about a good girl going bad who's all the happier for it. So if you're only thinking of playing "It Don't Do No Good to Be a Good Girl," just ask a disc jockey in any of the above cities exactly what you're missing.

Johnny Paycheck's encore at the CMA Convention is now climbing the charts.

Two weeks ago, at the CMA Convention in Nashville, some of country music's biggest names appeared on stage. When Johnny Paycheck finished "She's All I Got," the disc jockeys and people of Nashville in the audience shouted for him to belt it again.

"She's All I Got" is Johnny's first Epic single, produced by Billy Sherrill. And just a couple of weeks after its release, it's already No. 22 with a bullet in Billboard.

So for all the people who weren't in Nashville to stomp and shout along, just turn on the radio and wait for "She's All I Got."

WITHIN THE
NEXT COUPLE OF WEEKS,
THIS ALBUM
SHOULD MOVE OVER TWO COLUMNS.

Because Stonewall Jackson's "Me and You and a Dog Named Boo" is so full of great country songs, it's bound to climb right up the charts.

In addition to the title Top-10 tune, "Me and You and a Dog Named Boo," also includes "Please Help Me, I'm Falling," "Half as Much," "Crazy Heart," "Joy to the World," and the new single from the album, "Push the Panic Button."

So the next few times you read this magazine, shift your eyes to the other side of the page. Because that's the first place you'll find Stonewall Jackson's "Me and You and a Dog Named Boo."

STONEWALL JACKSON ME AND YOU AND A DOG NAMED BOO

NA-NA-NA-NA

Don't be surprised when you hear someone walking down the street singing this.

It's one of the catchiest parts of Bob Luman's infectious new hit, "A Chain Don't Take to Me."

In addition to catching on at radio stations throughout the country, and climbing the country charts, it's catching on in people's heads.

As you'll probably be hearing very soon.

"A Chain Don't Take to Me"<sup>5-10786</sup>
by Bob Luman On Epic Records

Just released!
The new Bob Luman album, titled after his catchy hit.

RED SIMPSON ONCE OUTSHINED TEX RITTER.

Red grew up in Bakersfield, and was always interested in Country music. Tex Ritter was performing locally, and Red volunteered to shine his boots between shows. In the dark, outside the club, Red shined Tex's favorite green boots BLACK.

Red has come a long way since then — a Navy hitch, playing on a hospital ship and in clubs. After the war he concentrated on writing and began touring with Buck Owens and Merle Haggard. Red travelled all over — from Carnegie Hall to Germany.

You may best know Red as a songwriter — KANSAS CITY SONG and SAM'S PLACE are two of his best known songs. He gave up the road in 1968 to concentrate on writing ...

Now Red is back, with a fast-rising single soon to be an album.

RED SIMPSON I'M A TRUCK (3236) on Capitol Records.

Produced by Gene Freedman.
Bookings: Cliffie Stone, (213) 469-2239

At Capitol, every month is Country Music Month.

BARBARA MANDRELL'S NEW SINGLE WILL CHANGE YOUR MIND ABOUT WOMEN DRIVERS.

Arts &

She's singing a hard-kicking, joyful song about a long-haul truckman on his way home to her arms.

But as soon as Billy Sherrill's dazzling production makes her voice heard, it's Barbara who's in the driver's seat. And she stays there, highballing through 2:05 of great music and lyrics.

Barbara Mandrell:

The story of "Cotton Top" is being broadcast up to eight times a day, in every major city in the country.

It's Carl Perkins' most programmed single in years. "Cotton Top" is racing up all the country charts, and even a few local Top-40 charts. But that should come as no surprise.

You could hardly expect less from a story that's getting almost as much air time as the news. Carl Perkins tells about "Cotton Top." <sup>4-45466</sup> On Columbia Records
